

Rabbi Rosenbaum will be away Sunday, June 27 through Tuesday, July 13.
 In his absence, halachic questions can be addressed to Rabbi Hyatt or Rabbi Reingold, who have both kindly agreed to be of assistance. Anyone who has an urgent matter to discuss with Rabbi Rosenbaum can contact the office staff, who will inform Rabbi Rosenbaum. Rabbi Rosenbaum has planned his trip so that there will be ample time to address Tisha B'Av shaalos upon his return.

We welcome the young children of our members, but strollers should be left outside alongside the shul. If bad weather requires you to bring your stroller inside, please fold it up to minimize the amount of space required. Thank you for your cooperation.

No Business Like Shul Business...

YISE has the nicest Kiddushes, on a regular basis, of any Shul in the Metro DC area, but we need volunteers to help clean up after! Call Alan at the Shul office, 301-593-4465, ext. 401.

Nine is Not Enough – There have been evenings recently when getting a Minyan for Mincha/Maariv at University Blvd. has been difficult... and that is a major problem for daveners there who have to say Kaddish. If you have the time and are going to daven anyway, head for University Blvd. some evenings and help keep the Minyan going.

It's your Shul – treat it like you would want your home treated!

Briefly Noted

The unveiling of a monument for Mrs. Helen G. Spector, a"h, is scheduled for Monday, July 5, 12 noon, National Capitol Hebrew Cemetery, Capitol Heights.

Gemachs – Visit yise.org to find out about area gemachs, where you can donate or borrow items, ranging from bicycles and children equipment to simcha clothes.

Rivky Krestt will continue a refresher course on Taharat HaMishpacha at KMS, for married women only. The class meets from 10:00-11:00 am, Wednesdays, July 7 and 14.

Career Fair – The Partnership for Public Service will host its eighth annual Public Service Career and Internship Fair July 14, 3pm-7pm at the National Building Museum in Washington, DC. Last year's event connected 78 federal agencies with more than 6,000 students and jobseekers.
