Post Government Shutdown Information

It is never easy to miss a paycheck. This is particularly true when we are coming off of a Yom Tov season. Individuals who were affected by the government shutdown and are concerned about being able to meet their financial needs should please feel free to contact me. All discussions will be confidential. I can be reached by phone at 301-593-4465, ext. 405, or email at rdrosenbaum@yise.org.

Rabbi Dovid Rosenbaum

Hebrew Free Loan Association - Did the government furlough/sequester impact your financial life? Do you have debts to pay or projects to begin? Your community may be able to help. The Hebrew Free Loan Association has been helping Jews in the Washington metropolitan area achieve their goals since 1910. HFLA provides interest free personal and/or student loans to qualified members of the Jewish community. Visit our website: <http://hebrewfreeloandc.org> or call 301-770-4836. You may also contact Dean Grayson at 301-908-2645.

Franco Foundation offers interest-free loans - Federal government workers whose paychecks were delayed because of the shutdown may apply for interest-free loans from the Franco Foundation to help tide them over until they receive their back pay. Additional sponsors for this project are welcome. For more information please contact Allan Franco at thefrancofoundation@gmail.com.

Community Safety Net - Tough times are driving more people for financial assistance from the Tomchei Shabbos of the Yehudah Mond Foundation.
