

FOR WOMEN ONLY – Please join us for this summer’s second YISE Sisterhood-sponsored Summer Women’s Seudah Shlishit, Shabbos Ki Tavo, August 28, 5pm - 7pm, YISE Arcola Social Hall.

The theme of this Seudah Shlishit program is "Bein Isha L'Isha: Between Woman and Woman," and will continue to explore the joys, challenges, and importance of fostering female friendships and relationships.

Attendees will enjoy a "Mid-East Feast" of authentic Mediterranean falafel, salads and spreads with decor that will inspire and create Mediterranean memories, while meeting and mingling with other women from the community. The program will include a d'var Torah by Marilyn Fine on "Sister Acts: Tales of Sisterhood in the Tanach" exploring the many sides of female relationships as well as a performance by Kol Gilah, a community-based women’s choir. Tempting desserts will conclude the program. All women welcome and encouraged to attend! (But we kindly request no children under the age of 12 years old.)
