Yesodei HaTorah – The Greater Washington Community Kollel is planning a weekly shiur for men in Kemp Mill, using this proven method to equip beginners with the skills they need to study Gemara independently. Focus is on key Aramaic vocabulary and the structure of Talmudic discourse. Thursdays, 8pm, YISE. If interested, contact David Marwick, david.marwick@verizon.net or Rabbi Menachem Winter, Rosh Kollel, mwinter@gwckollel.com or 301-213-6504.

Do a mitzvah, and help those in need. Donate your gently worn sheitels to the Wig Out Gemach! Contact Stephanie, 301-768-6801.

Tomchei Shabbos – Do you know individuals or families who can't afford to buy food for Shabbos or Yom Tov? The Yehuda Mond Foundation will arrange for confidential local food deliveries. Contact Rabbi Moshe Arzouan if you know anyone who could benefit from this service. For more information on the Foundation, and how to provide much-needed tax-deductible support to this project, visit www.yehudamond.org.

Gemachs – Visit yise.org to find out about area gemachs, where you can donate or borrow items, ranging from bicycles and children equipment to simcha clothes.

Looking for a job? Join the Job Club Thursday nights, 7:30pm, in YISE's small Beis Medrash. Benefit from networking with fellow participants, practice your "elevator speech", and more. The Kemp Mill Employment Assistance Initiative has been helping people for years and has now expanded its offerings to include a Job Club. For more information contact Richard Dine, richard.dine@gmail.com, or Cheryl Jacobson, cvjacobs@comcast.net.

New Chesed Program launched – An exciting new Chesed program is providing new, much needed services to our community. In the newly renamed Shauli Mordehai Toras Chesed Program, otherwise known as the SMTCP, 60 Yeshiva Boys Division high school students together with 20 Yeshiva Gedolah students run the following chesed activities: helping Jewish adults with special needs, providing enrichment learning for local Jewish boys, creating interactive Torah activities for the local Jewish male special needs population, and visiting the elderly. Please see the flyer posted in the shul for more details. To contact the SMTCP, send an email to SMTCP@yeshiva.edu.
