Many of our community members receive their income, whether directly or indirectly, from the federal government. The Pesach season involves a certain amount of financial stress when all things are going as expected. The government sequester, particularly at this time of year, creates great concern. I would urge anyone affected by economic concerns, be they short-term or long-term, to contact me. I can be reached at rdrosenbaum@yise.org or 301-593-4465, ext. 405. All conversations will be kept in the strictest confidence.
Sincerely, Rabbi Dovid Rosenbaum
