YISE and KMS Annual Yom Hashoah V'Hagvurah Commemoration Presents Susan Taube

Susan Taube, now a Maryland resident, was born a world away in the small town of Vacha in prewar Germany. By the time she was thirteen, she and her family had fled to Frankfurt because conditions in her town worsened. The November pogrom known as Kristallnacht resulted in her father's brief incarceration in the Buchenwald Concentration Camp. Forced to emigrate, he settled in Baltimore and sadly could not bring his family out. Susan, her mother and sister were subjected to harsh forced labor, first in Germany and then in Latvia. Only Susan survived. At the close of the war, she endured a ten-day forced march of over 90 miles to another camp. She was liberated by the Soviets in 1945. With no family left, she was sent alone to work on a Soviet farm. Eventually, a kinder fate led her to work in a town where she met a Polish Jew named Herman Taube, who soon became her husband. She reunited with her father, when the Taubes moved to Baltimore, where they also raised a family.

Many of our community members receive their income, whether directly or indirectly, from the federal government. The Pesach season involves a certain amount of financial stress when all things are going as expected. The government sequester, particularly at this time of year, creates great concern. I would urge anyone affected by economic concerns, be they short-term or long-term, to contact me. I can be reached at rdrosenbaum@yise.org or 301-593-4465, ext. 405. All conversations will be kept in the strictest confidence.

Sincerely, Rabbi Dovid Rosenbaum
