Help keep the YISE Sisterhood active and vibrant!!!

Want to serve the women of YISE and the greater Kemp Mill community? Have ideas for exciting events and outings that you'd like to make a reality? Looking to make new friends and get more involved in your community? This is YOUR time to shine! The YISE Sisterhood is seeking a few good women to join the Sisterhood Board, which currently has a number of vacancies. To ensure the continuity of YISE Sisterhood, the current Board will hold an open selection meeting on July 1, at 7:30 PM, in the YISE Arcola Social Hall.

Board Positions include:

- President/Co-President - Responsibilities include leading a team of wonderful and motivated women in planning and implementing events open to women of all ages in the community.
- Vice President - Responsibilities mirror those of the President/Co-President, albeit in an ancillary role.
- Program Coordinators (2) - Responsibilities include planning and implementing, at minimum, the Sisterhood's annual Mothers Day Seudah Shlishit, two Summer Seudah Shlishits, the Simchat Torah Kiddush, Purim bags for children, and the Sisterhood Membership Brunch.
- Secretary/Communications/Publicity - Responsibilities include taking notes at board meetings, publicizing Sisterhood events, and communicating/coordinating events with the shul office.
- Treasurer - Responsibilities include managing the Sisterhood account.

At the July 1 meeting, current Board Members will answer questions about the positions and responsibilities and describe their experience being on the Board and becoming a member of the YISE Sisterhood family. Anyone interested in even possibly joining the Board is encouraged to email achlewicki@yise.org in advance of the event and to attend the meeting.
