Government Shutdown Information

Learning and Breakfast Program - Rabbi Rosenbaum will be giving a daily Shiur for the duration of the Federal Government Shutdown after the 8:30 Minyan - starting between 9:15 AM and 9:30 AM. The program is for the entire community with learning skills at any level and both men and women are welcome. The program is expected to last about 45 minutes. The program will be held in the YISE Social Hall, Monday through Friday. Bagels and cream cheese will be served. For more information, contact Michael Shimoff at michaelshimoff@yise.org. The learning program will not meet on Columbus Day, Monday, October 14.

It is never easy to miss a paycheck. This is particularly true when we are coming off of a Yom Tov season. Individuals who are affected by the government shutdown and are concerned about being able to meet their financial needs should please feel free to contact me. All discussions will be confidential. I can be reached by phone at 301-593-4465, ext. 405, or email at rdrosenbaum@yise.org.
