"As rabbi of YISE, I especially enjoy my weekly opportunity to interact with the children and witness their growth in Torah knowledge and so many aspects of human development. It's a pleasure to forge a connection with them that continues to build when I see them in numerous places over the years to come. ."

—Rabbi David Rosenbaum

"I love Shomrai Preschool because of how much the staff loves the children! The most important thing to me in a preschool is warmth and love for the children and Shomrai provides that and so much more!"

— Rivkie Manes

"I would never imagine sending my children to any other preschool! The amazing teachers at Shomrai give so much love and great care to my little ones and most importantly it is all being done in the light of the Torah and the Jewish way of life!"

— Miri Shoshani
